Vishal Gautam is a director of V Immigration Ltd, a Birmingham-based immigration advice firm regulated by the Immigration Advice Authority (adviser no. P063473; firm no. F202638454; Level 1). He came to the UK on a student visa, moved to the Skilled Worker route and settled here. He advises employers on sponsoring overseas staff and individuals on work, study and family visas, and writes on how immigration policy affects small businesses and families.

Comment on

- Sponsor licences: revocations, compliance visits, the Sponsor Management System
- Hiring and costs: salary thresholds, the Immigration Skills Charge
- Graduates and students; care workers; family visas; settlement and citizenship

Not covered: individual cases, appeals or judicial review. For those, a solicitor or a higher-level adviser is the right source.
